Surely all would agree about caring for our planet. But what has happened to it during the past 50 years? Well, humans have polluted and destroyed it. Our world has been turned into a strange place. Can we save it? There is much talk about this, but how much is being done to actually accomplish it? Moreover, we are asking this question: Is this climate movement going too far? Is it correct that our planetary home is so wrecked that we are all going to die within 10-20 years?

What is the reason the globe is being worn out like a garment? It is this: "The land and the earth also are defiled by their inhabitants, because they have transgressed the laws, disregarded the statutes, and broken the everlasting covenant. Therefore a curse devours the land and the earth, and they who dwell in it suffer the punishment of their guilt. Therefore the inhabitants of the land and the earth are scorched and parched, and few people are left." Isaiah 24:5-6.

World leaders are now gathering in Glasgow, Scotland in search of a solution. But is there an ulterior motive behind all of this? Are world leaders using this environmental situation to put the world under global governance? Indeed, this is viewed by many as being the case, as regards both the covid 19 process and the state of the environment. On the U.N. website we read "Uniting the world to tackle climate change." The world is lining up behind the U.N. and its international laws. Among other things, they are going to have a Climate Sunday, as part of the solution to the climate problem.

Please notice it is the U.N. that is standing behind the climate summit in Glasgow, in collaboration with Italy. Why is the U.N. cooperating exclusively with Italy in this arrangement? Well, because the U.N. is cooperating with the Pope and the papal headquarters are in Italy. They share global plans. Hence, Pope Francis is a central figure in the global strategy.

Through this arrangement, they have secured the participation of 'all' heads of state and religious organisations in accepting the U.N.'s global agenda. For several years now, especially after the appointment of Antonio Guterres – who also is a Catholic – as Secretary General of the U.N., the United Nations has been closely collaborating with Jesuit Pope Francis.

We should remember the Jesuit oath speaking of destroying Protestantism and the independent nations. This is being ensured in various ways today. Protestantism is being torn asunder through, for instance, the Catholic ecumenical movement.

In the political arena, the U.N. and the Pope are making political leaders adhere to their global plans. Individual nations are to give up their independence and sign up to their schemes. In the Bible, the Word of God, we can read that the entire world will marvel and follow after the papal power (the beast), Revelation 13:2.

The Bible also shows that the nations of the world are going to give their might and power to the papal institution. Their plans will be harmonious. However, the Bible declares that they are fighting against Christ and those on His side, Revelation 17:12-14. Have we reached this point?

Already, we have seen that all 193 U.N.

member states have accepted the new global plan, Agenda 2030, for sustainable development. Furthermore, they agreed on a global plan at the December 2015 Paris Climate Summit, and now they are ready to point to the Pope's document on the climate, Laudato Si. We are witnessing the world drawing together in the political and religious fields. Now State and church officials are getting together, and in recent years we have seen them gather in the war against viruses and now in the war on climate change. However, there is another gathering taking place. Please notice the following piece of information: The European Sunday Alliance, instituted in June 2011, wants work-free Sundays in the EU – from a social point of view. The European Parliament decided in April 2019 that within three years there would be work-free Sundays in all EU member states – that is to say from August 1st, 2022. – From the European Commission News, August 22nd, 2019.

Are you reacting to this information? For many years now we have been predicting the introduction of a common rest day, and now they are enacting a law about working-free Sundays in the EU. We can clearly see that this is a step towards what is coming, namely stealthily introducing Sunday as the rest day for everybody. Then, and only then, will the mark of the beast be a fact.

The beast is the papacy, with the Pope going on before, and they have a mark of their authority in religious matters. They themselves say this mark is Sunday, which they have introduced in the place of the day of rest of the Bible and Jesus, the Sabbath.

We can now see the prophecies in the Bible concerning the mark of the beast being realised. The USA will be first in introducing the mark of the beast, so a national Sunday law cannot be far off there. All are to bow the knee to the European and international enactments, and the individual will, therefore, soon have a very limited say. Nations and peoples are becoming slaves to the global, international decisions. We are heading towards absolute control over the people.

We are now experiencing the Taliban persecuting the Christians in Afghanistan. If they refuse to adhere to Islam and the Koran and their sharia laws, they are mercilessly killed. Sexually mature girls and women are being used to procreate, ensuring a growing number of Muslims in the world. Islam and the Catholic Church have joined in a fraternal union to withstand preachers of hate and so-called fundamentalists (Bible-true Christians). Persecution of Christians is now blossoming in many lands, and we are witnessing the fulfilling of serious persecution of God's people in the final time of the last days. Daniel 12:1 and Revelation 13:16. We are now entering that period. Let us during this time put our trust in Jesus Christ. In Matthew 28:18 we read that He has all power in heaven and on earth, and He has promised to be with us all days to the end of the world!
